WORK OF THE CENTRAL UNION MISSION AND ITS BRANCHES.

Efforts to Raise Funds for a New Building Heing Made-Interesting History of an Institution Which Had a Very Small Beginning.

The project for the erection of a permanent home for the Central Union ssion will shortly receive substantial ald from the business men of this city. Mr. B. H. Warner and other well known citizens have interested themselves in the welfare of the Mission and will shortly hold a meeting for the purpose of discussing plans by which the necessary amount of money for the erection of the new home will be

The directors of this institution have been offered several sites on Pennsylvenia avenue, but as yet have made no selection. It is very probable, however that in the fall the Mission will be in stalled in an edifice ample enough to enable it to earry out its great work. Although this institution has only been in existence five years, its work has been felt throughout the entire city. It was started in a small room in a house on Pennsylvania avenue by five gentlemen who saw the great need of mission work. These gentlemen constituted its board of directors and took turns in conducting services. In a short time the attendance at the mission had increased to such an extent that a larger room was required in which to hold the services. Even with the enlarged accommodations the attendance continued to increase, until at the present time the mission controls the large hall on Pennsylvania avenue and eight branches scattered about the city and a Gospel wagon. During the past few months the meetings held in the Pennsylvania avenuc hall have been much overcrowded. similar state of affairs existed at the branches. On Sunday evening the number of people who tried to get into the Pennsylvania avenue hall was so great as to cause a policeman to be called in to prevent overcrowd-ing. Similar measures had to be taken at nearly every meeting dur-ing the past year. This gratifying increase in the attendance caused the members of the board of directors. which now numbers tea, to hunt about for some means of accommodating all who desired to listen to the preaching of the gospel. It was then that the project of creeting a permanent home for the Mission was broached. Although no former appeal was made for subscriptions, nearly $1,500 has already scribed during the past week by at-tendants of the Mission. It is expected that Mr. Warner and the other business men who are inter-ested will devise means by which the money necessary for the construction of the building will be speedily raised. After these gentlemen have met it is probable that a mass meeting of friends of the Mission will be held in one of the churches of this city to indorse their action and assist them in their efforts. The directors of the Mission have already been offered two churches for this purpose. This is an indication of the good feeling which exists between the Mission and the churches.

been collected for the new edifice. Nearly $700 of this amount was sub-

The former institution calls itself the child of the churches. Its object is the conversion of erring ones, and all converts are urged to unite with some evangelical church in the city. Since establishment of the work nearly 2,000 persons have been converted. A great many of these conversions were made by the workers on the Gospel wagon. This vehicle was started on its work about two years ago. It is a veritable chapel on wheels, and be sides containing a cabinet organ ac-commodates thirty persons. Besides the work done at the meetings the Mission keeps the main hall open day and night, and a missionary is always on hand to talk with those who may come in. A lady missionary is also employed to visit the homes of attendants. This lady and the missionary at the hall are the only persons connected with the Mission who are remunerated for their services. The other workers labor without pay, and many of them contribute toward the Mission's expenses.

During the past year the institution has held 2,139 meetings, which were attended by 194,741 persons. Its expenses were $4,120.87, which was contributed by the 200 members of its executive committee and by members of the various churches. None of these subscriptions exceeded $2 a month. The gentlemen who have charge of this work and who consti this work and who consti-tute its board of directors are: James H. Hitchcock, George W. James H. Hitchcock, George W. Wheeler, N. A. Robbins, A. L. Swartwout, W. C. Tyler, E. D. Bailey, S. P. Forster, O. B. Brown, T. C. Severance, and George W. Hovell, All these and George W. Havell. All these gentlemen are business men, with the exception of Mr. Bailey. The latter is regularly ordained minister, but he has not been connected with any church in some time, aithough he has been one of the most carnest workers at the Mis-He and the other directors ex pect, when the new building is erected to be able to double their efforts.

CHINESE PRESENCE OF MIND.

A Philosopher Relates an Instance of Their Wonderful Self Control.

'It is not along the broader lines of social life alone that we can trace race characteristics and distinctions," said a seedy looking individual in front of a Philadelphia hotel, buttoning up a wellworn fall overcoat closely to his throat, so as to conceal the still more worn summer coat beneath, and drawing on, with careless fastidiousness, a pair of kid gloves that were badly in need of repair. His general appearance, as described by the Inquirer, was that of a broken down sporting man or a ward politician who had been subsisting for many months on the expectations of an appointment when the Civil Service law s repealed; his air was that of a millionaire just sauntering out after having enjoyed a sumptuous dinner, but, according to his own statement, he was neither.

'I am a student of social science," he said, "and nothing delights me more than to study national peculiarities and characteristics as they are revealed in the trivial occurrences of every-day life.

"To illustrate, I went into a Ninth-street Chinese laundry the other even The heathen had neglected to send my linen home. That, however, did not strike me as a race peculiarity: It is rather a class characteristic common to all laundrymen, no matter what their nationality. But something occurred while I waited that did strike me.

'It was just about dusk. The streets were crowded with people going home from work, and in the room half a dozen Chinamen were busy froning at different tables. A coal oil lamp that hung in the bulk window had just been lighted. A good deal of oil had been spilled on the outside of the bowl in filling it, and suddenly this caught fire and blazed up, not only endangering the red curtains draped about the window, but threatening to cause an explosion of the lamp.

"A Chinaman on the far side of the room saw the flames and uttered a single exclamation to call the attention of the others. That was the only sound by any of the Celestials and none of them left their work except one nim ble little fellow, who jumped lightly and quickly into the window.

"But the flame- had been seen from he streets, and instantly the room was filled with passers by, who rushed madly in, each one shouting directions at the top of his voice.

Throw the lamp into the street. Dash water upon it! 'Run for a po-lecman' 'Strike the fire-alarm' they ried, and one excited individual yelled Take a club and smash it to pieces,

Meanwhile the little Chinaman in the window bad quickly seized a large damp cloth from his table, and while his fellow countrymen looked calmly on amid all the confusion and hubbub he wrapped it around the burning lamp and held it there till the flames were completely smothered. Then he quietly returned to his work without stopping for a moment to discuss the occurrence, but it was several minutes before the excitement had died out among the Cau-casians who had crowded in and they ere ready to depart.

"Now this difference of behavior in the face of danger and smid exciting circumstances, does certainly indicate a fundamental and characteristic difference between the Oriental and Occi-dental races. You may say that the conduct of the Chinaman resulted merely from Oriental apathy, or you may attribute it to the fatalistic habits of thought engendered by Eastern religions, or you may say that the occur-rence furnished a confirmation of Her-bert Spencer's theory, that burry and overwork have resulted in a condition of pervous instability among all the races of the West. But whatever you attribute it to, I tell you the Chinaman's method of action is the best, when you have to deal with a coal oil lamp that is about exploding.

"You couldn't lend me a dime, could you, to pay my ear fare? I want to get to Richmond, where I am announced to lecture before a conclave of the Theosophical Society.

Blood Will Tell. There is no question about it—blood will tell—especially if it be an impure blood. Blotches, cruptions, pimples and boils are all symptoms of an impure blood, due to the improper action of the liver. When this important organ fails to properly perform its function of puritying and cleans. this important organ fails to properly perform its function of purifying and cleansing the blood, impurities are carried to all parts of the system, and the symptoms above referred to are merely evidences of the struggle of nature to throw off the poisonous germs. After the a Parlor Sociat." Dora Jenkins and John Honesty are two colored residents of Georgetown who live together as man and wife. Last night Dora went to a "parlor social" with another man, and when she returned John had locked the door and remarked that he had an axe in side and he would use it on her unless she left the neighborhood. But this threat didn't frighten her, and she reached down in the folds of her dress and brought up a long knife with a crooked handle and asked him to step outside with his axe, she was ready for him. He did step outside, but he went through the back door, found Officer Passeno on the corner, and when the two returned they found Dora walting patiently for John with the knife still in her hand. She was taken to the sta-tion along with John, and in the Police Court this morning she was sent to the workhouse for sixty days. John went with her for half that term.

To the Workhouse Again. Joseph Graves, an old man with white moustache and a red face, walked into the dock unsteadily this morning and pleaded not guilty to being a

Rheumatism

Is believed to be caused by excess of lactic icid in the blood, owing to the failure of the kidneys and liver to properly remove it. The acid attacks the fibrons tissues, particularly in the foints, and causes the local manifesta tions of the disease, pains and aches in the back and shoulders, and in the joints at the knees, ankles, hips and wrists. Thousands of people have found in Hood's Sarsaparilla a positive and permanent cure for rhenma tism. This medicine by its purifying and vitalizing action, neutralizes the acidity of the blood, and also builds up and strengthens the whole body.

Wonderful Properties II'I have taken Hood's Sarsaparilla and ound it excellent for rheumatism and dyspepsia. I suffered for many long years, but my complete recovery is due to Hood's Sarsuparilla. I recommend it to every one be cause of its wonderful properties as a blood medicine." John Kullman, 85 Chatham Street, Cleveland, Ohio.

Inflammatory Rheumatism "I just want people to know that we think Hood's Sarsaparilla the best remedy for inflammatory rheumatism in the world. My husband had this terrible affection for two years and Hood's Sarsaparilla helped him more than anything else. I am always glad to tell what Hood's Sarsaparilla has done." Mas. F. The Death Record at the Health Office

PNEUMONIA and LUNG TROUBLES.

The record of the Health Office for January 21 shows 61 deaths reported. Of these 17 were from PNEUMONIA, 5 from BRON-CHITIS, 4 from CONGESTION of the LUNGS, 4 from CONSUMPTION. In two cases the GRIP was given as the cause of death and in one "LA GRIPPE PNEUMONIA" was reorded. The figures of the day before showed that over 50 per cent, of the deaths were caused by lung diseases. This is a very large showing of mortality rom lung diseases, especially from the dangerous grip.

For the prevention of lung troubles of all kinds DOUGLASS' EMULSION is recommended, the timely use of which may avert a serious illness, i nothing worse. Douglass' Emulsion is made from Pure Norwe-gian Cod Liver Oil, combined with the Hypo-phosphites of Lime and Soda. It is very palatable and easily digested. Douglass' Emulsion Is a specific for Weak Lungs, Bronchial Troubles and General Deblity. Sufferers from "La Grippe" will find it will strengthen the Lungs, relieve the Soreness of the Chest and quickly cure the Cough resulting from the disease.

A Dissertation on American Wines.

It is now universally conceded by even the most fanatical testotalers that a glass of thoroughly matured and pure wine is the most wholesome, health and strength-giving beverage for mankind. Almost every State—no matter how cold its climate—produces grapes from which wine is pressed, but THE PASADENA WINES are made from those juscious SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA grapes which attain the highest grade of maturity and ripeness and are therefore the best wines in the market.

am the sole agent for the Pasadena Wines and Brandles and sell at marvelously low prices. I have received orders from rich and poor alike and all cheerfully acknowledge that the Pasadena Wines and Brandles are by far the best and purest in the District, notwithstanding the fact that my prices are the very lowest.

WASHINGTON, D. C.

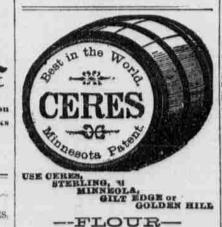

My 20 per cent. removal discount will be indefinitely continued. Please compare my prices with those of others.
